Counsel, I amended the scheduling order and temporary restraining order in Civ 15-9-0111 and attach a copy. The hearing has been moved to October 23, 2015 at 10 AM. Counsel, please make sure when you file things the correct docket number is on them. When I was reviewing the file I noticed that several matters intended to be filed in CIV-15-9-0111 had the docket number related to the case that is currently on appeal- CIV 14-12-0119. The Court of Appeals granted expedited review in that case but it does not appear that there will be a ruling from that Court prior to October 23, 2015. Everyone have a great week. BJ Jones

It is argued in Defendants/Appellees Motion to Dismiss 1) that no one, not the Clerk of Courts and not the Special Judge adjudicating the cause, may change so much as a single character of the summons and verified complaint filed in this matter September 11, 2015 by Plaintiffs/Appellants; 2) it is argued that the temporary restraining order at bar was issued without a careful examination of Plaintiffs/Appellants' defective papers; 3) Defendants/Appellees argue that the temporary restraining order was not properly issued; and 4) it is argued that the numbers denominating the summons and complaint should not be changed because those CIV numbers were set forth erroneously on the summons and verified complaint filed September 11, 2015 .
