

died. The Plaintiffs claim that those actions are unconstitutional because they are contrary to this Court's interpretation of the Lower Brule Sioux Tribal Constitution in CIV-14-12-0119. This Court has not been pointed to any action by the Court of Appeals to vacate that continuing injunction.

From the filings of the Plaintiffs it appears that the Defendants have taken actions that run contrary to this Court's interpretation of the Lower Brule Sioux Tribal Constitution and that the Plaintiffs have also alleged harm to their rights as elected leaders to notice and the right to have their legislative voices heard. This may state a claim under the Indian Civil Rights Act and the Defendants may not be entitled to claim immunity from judicial review. However, the Court finds that the Defendants should have a right to be heard prior to this Court taking action to invalidate any actions of the Defendants.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Defendants shall be temporarily restrained from taking actions as a legislative body without a quorum and without the necessary votes of that quorum as this Court ruled in CIV-14-12-0119 and it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Defendants shall have until September 24, 2015 by close of business to show cause, by affidavit or otherwise, why their actions taken at a meeting in Rapid City, South Dakota on September 8, 2015 should not be declared void and of no legal effect and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that hearing on whether to grant the Plaintiffs a preliminary injunction shall be held on the 2nd day of October 2015 at 2 PM at the Tribal Courtroom in Lower Brule, South Dakota.

So ordered this 14th day of September 2015.
